Seamless Migration of 5K+ Products & 500+ Customers' Data to Oracle EBS with Data Centralization

Case Study

Insight

A global manufacturer of ice chests, drink containers, and supporting accessories faced challenges in migrating the acquired entity's data from the SyteLine application to Oracle EBS. It wanted to streamline the data access and centralization process.

Forsys inked partnership with FloData to offer E2E data migration, which helped the client to speed up data assimilation and migrate 55k+ products & 5k+ customers' data.

Industry	Revenue	Employees	Headquarters
Manufacturing	$300+ M	1k+	Texas, US

Business Challenge

The client had a dearth of knowledge & expertise in change management. They needed a technology integration partner that could define, design, and implement a comprehensive change management plan to match and validate the data types, and migrate them as well as the organizational processes without disrupting business continuity.

Transformation Journey

Forsys partnered with FloData to devise and implement a data migration test strategy for:

500+ customers data along with 9500+ ship to sites data

400+ suppliers data

5500+ products/items data

4600+ approved supplier lists(ASL)

70+ open purchase orders with 100+ lines

300+ price lists along 15000+ list lines

500+ open sales orders along with 2400+ lines

23000+ on-hand quantity records

Impact

Since the migration, the client observed:

- Streamlined data access and maintenance with easy access in one central system.
- Improved business planning with management/dashboard reports.
- Enhanced employee productivity.
- One system licence cost reducing the maintenance costs.
- Curtailed regression cycle efforts.
- Discovery data ambiguities & quality issues.

About the Client

The client is a leading manufacturer of ice chests, drink containers, and supporting accessories. Incepted in 1947, the Texas-based company through its 500+ product offerings sold at hundreds of retailers around the globe calls itself the #1 cooler manufacturer in the world.
